

DEPUY WORLDWIDE QUALITY POLICY

In accordance with the Johnson & Johnson credo and our company values, DePuy will strive to meet or exceed our customers' needs and expectations with regard to our products and services

We will strive to assure our customers' continued satisfaction by:

- Optimizing our internal resources, both human and technological
- Building equal partnerships with our suppliers
- Encouraging teamwork, employee empowerment and development
- Fostering an environment of continuous improvement and innovation

The successful attainment of this policy is the responsibility of all our employees. Management will ensure proper communication, understanding and periodic review of this policy.

NOTE: With respect to the Quality Policy, DePuy Management recognizes that compliance with all applicable government regulations and statutes are a prerequisite for delivering our products and services to the end user. Our commitment to assuring the continued satisfaction of our customers includes a commitment to comply with all applicable government and regulatory requirements.